THE COMMONWEALTH.

Utah—Gov. Cumming's Official Account of his Reception at Salt Lake City.

The following is Gov. Cumming's dispatch to the Secretary of State, narrating his experiences in Salt Lake City.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., May 2. 5
Sir: You are aware that my contemplated journey was postponed in consequence of the snow on the mountains, and in the canons between Fort Bridger and this city. In accordance with the determination communicated in former notes, I left camp on the 5th and arrived here on the 12th ult.

Some of the incidents of my journey are related in the annexed note, addressed by me to Col. A. S. Johnston, on the 15th ult:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., May 2. 5
Sir: I left camp on the 5th, en route to this city, in accordance with a determination communicated to you on the 3d inst., accompanied by Colonel Kane as my guide, and two servants.

Arriving in the vicinity of the spring, which is on this side of the "Quaking Asp" hill, after night, Indian camp fires were discerned on the rocks overhanging the valley. We proceeded to the spring, and after disposing of the animals, retired from the trail beyond the mountain. We had reason to congratulate ourselves upon having taken this precaution, as we subsequently ascertained that the country lying between your outposts and the "Yellow" is infested by bold renegades and outlaws from various tribes.

I was escorted from Bear River Valley to the western end of Echo Canon. The journey through the canon being performed, for the most part, after night, it was about 11 o'clock P. M. when I arrived at Weber Station. I have been everywhere recognized as Governor of Utah; and, so far from having encountered insults or indignities, I am gratified in being able to state to you that, in passing through the settlements, I have been universally greeted with such respectful attentions as are due to the representative of the Executive authority of the United States in the Territory.

Near the Warm Springs, at the line dividing Great Salt Lake and Davis counties, I was honored with a formal and respectful reception by many gentlemen, including the Mayor and other municipal officers of the city, and by them escorted to lodgings previously provided, the Mayor occupying a seat in my carriage.

Ex-Governor Brigham Young paid me a call of ceremony as soon as I was sufficiently relieved from the fatigue of my mountain journey to receive company. In subsequent interviews with the ex-Governor he has evinced a willingness to afford me every facility which I may require for the efficient performance of my administrative duties. His course in this respect meets, I fancy, with the approval of a majority of this community. The Territorial seal with other public property, has been tendered me by William H. Hooper, Esq., late Acting Secretary pro tem.

I have not yet examined the subject critically, but apprehend that the records of the United States Courts, Territorial Library, and other public property, remain unimpeded.

Having entered upon the performance of my official duties in this city, it is probable that I will be detained for some days in this part of the Territory.

I respectfully call your attention to a matter which demands our serious consideration. Many acts of depredation have been recently committed by Indians upon the property of the inhabitants—one in the immediate vicinity of this city. Believing that the Indians will endeavor to sell the stolen property at or near the camp, I have enclosed the brand book (in complete) and memoranda, (in part) of stock lost by citizens of Utah since Feb. 25, 1852, and two letters addressed to me on the same subject by Wm. H. Hooper, Esq., late Acting Secretary pro tem, which may enable you to secure the property and punish the thieves.

With feelings of profound regret I have learned that Agent Hurt is charged with having incurred to acts of hostility the Indians in Uinta valley. I hope that Agent Hurt will be able to vindicate himself from the charges contained in the enclosed letter from William H. Hooper, late Secretary pro tem, yet they demand a thorough investigation.

I shall probably be compelled to make a requisition upon you for a sufficient force to chastise the Indians alluded to, since I desire to avoid being compelled to call out the militia for that purpose.

The gentlemen who are entrusted with this note, Mr. John B. Kimball and Mr. Fay Worth, are engaged in mercantile pursuits here, and are represented to be gentlemen of the highest respectability, and have no connection with the church here. Should you find it advisable or necessary, you will please send any communication intended for me by them. I beg leave to commend them to your confidence and courtesy; they will probably return to the city in a few days. They are well known to Messrs. Gilbert, Perry & Barr, with whom you will please communicate.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A. CUMMING,

Governor Utah Territory.

A. S. Johnston, Col. of Cavalry, Commanding Army of Utah, Fort Scott, U. T.

The note omits to state that I met parties of armed men at Lost and Yellow creeks, as well as Echo Canon. At every point, however, I was recognized as the Governor of Utah, and received with a military salute. When it was arranged with the Mormon officers in command of my escort that I should pass through Echo Canon at night, I inferred that it was with the object of concealing the barricades and other defences. I was, therefore, surprised by an illumination in honor of me. The bon-fires kindled by the soldiers from the base to the summits of the walls of the Canon completely illuminated the valley, and disclosed the snow-colored mountains which surrounded us. When I arrived at the next station I found the "emigrant road" over the "Big mountain" still impassable. I was unable to make my way, however, down "Weber Canon."

Since my arrival I have been employed in examining the records of the Supreme and District Courts, which I am now prepared to report as being perfect and unimpaired. This will doubtless be acceptable information to those who have entertained an impression to the contrary.

I have also examined the legislative records, and other books belonging to the office of the Secretary of State, which are in perfect preservation. The property return, though not made up in proper form, exhibits the public property for which W. H. Hooper, late Secretary of State, is responsible. It is, in part, the cause for which the estate of A. W. Babbit is liable, that individual having died whilst in the office of Secretary of State for Utah.

I believe that the books and charts, stationery and other property, appertaining to the Surveyor General's office, will, upon examination, be found in the proper place, except some instruments, which are supposed to have been disposed of by some person who was temporarily in charge of the office. I examined the property, but cannot verify the matter, in consequence of not having a command a schedule or property return.

The condition of the large and valuable Territorial library has also commanded my attention, and I am pleased in being able to report that Mr. W. C. Staines, the librarian, has kept the books and records in the most excellent condition. I will at an early day, transmit a catalog of this library, and a schedule of the other public property, with certified copies of the records of the Supreme and District Courts, exhibiting the character and amount of the public business last transacted in them.

On the 21st instant I left Great Salt Lake City, and visited Tufts and Bush Valleys, the latter of which lies the military reserve selected by Col. Steptoe, and endeavored to trace the lines upon the ground from field notes which are in the Surveyor General's office. An accurate plan of the reserve, as it has been measured off, will be found accompanying a communication, which I shall address to the Secretary of War, upon this subject.

On the morning of the 24th inst., information was communicated to me that a number of persons who were desirous of leaving the Territory were unable to do so, and considered themselves to be unlawfully restrained of their liberty. It is therefore proper that I should announce that I assume the protection of all such persons, if any there be, and request that they will communicate to me their names and places of residence, under seal, through Mr. Fay Worth, and to me in person, during my stay in this place, which was Sunday, requested the following notice to be read, in my presence, to the people at the Tabernacle:

"NOTICE.

"It has been reported to me that there are persons residing in this and in other parts of the Territory who are illegally restrained of their liberty. It is therefore proper that I should announce that I assume the protection of all such persons, if any there be, and request that they will communicate to me their names and places of residence, under seal, through Mr. Fay Worth, and to me in person, during my stay in this city.

A. CUMMING,

Governor of Utah Territory.

I have since kept my office open at all hours of the day and night, and have registered no less than 56 men, 35 women, and 71 children, as desirous of protection and assistance in proceeding to the States. The large majority of these people are of English birth, and state that they leave the congregation from a desire to improve their circumstances, and realize elsewhere more money by their labor. Certain leading men among the Mormons have promised them "lions" and to assist them in leaving the country.

My presence in the Tabernacle will be remembered by me as an occasion of intense interest. Between three and four thousand persons were assembled for the purpose of public worship; the hall was crowded to overflowing; but the most profound quiet was observed when I appeared—President Brigham Young introduced me by name, as the Governor of Utah, and I addressed the audience from "the stand." I informed them that I had come among them to vindicate the national sovereignty; that it was my duty to secure the supremacy of the Constitution and laws; that I had taken my oath of office to exact an unconditional submission on their part to the dictates of the law. I was not interrupted.

In a discourse of about thirty minutes' duration, I touched (as I thought best,) boldly upon all the leading questions at issue between the ex-Governor and his wife, and the general government. I remembered that I had to deal with men embittered by the remembrance and recital of many real and imaginary wrongs, but did not think it wise to withhold from them the entire truth. They listened respectfully to all that I had to say—approvingly even, I fancied—when I explained to them what I intended should be the character of my administration. In fact, the whole manner of the people was calm, befitting no consciousness of having done wrong, but rather as it were, indicating a conviction that they had done their duty to their religion and their country. I have observed that the Mormons profess to view the constitution as the work of inspired men, and responded with readiness to appeals for its support.

Thus, the meeting might have ended. But after closing my remarks, I rose and stated that I would be glad to hear from any who might be inclined to address me upon topics of interest to the community. This invitation brought forth in succession several speakers, who evidently exercised great influence over the masses of the people. They harangued on the subject of the assassination of Joseph Smith, Jr., and his friends, the services rendered by a Mormon battalion to an ungrateful country, their suffering on the "plains" during their dreary pilgrimage to their mountain home, &c. The congregation became greatly excited, and joined the speakers in their impetuous remarks, exhibiting more frenzy than I had expected to witness among the people.

WALTZING WITH A DEAD WOMAN.—Prince W— was known at London as at Paris as the first waltzer in the world. He waltzed for an hour with no extra beating of the heart; he waltzed every lady, he exhausted every orchestra, of much beauty wished to waltz with him, and asked him to engage her. She was the daughter of a distinguished nobleman, who had played an important part in East Indian affairs. The prince waltzed with her; soon the other waltzers stopped, the prince and Arabella alone continued. It seemed as if he were inspired while waltzing; he kept on dancing without cessation of speed, and the orchestra tried in vain to follow him. The young girl, her head upon his shoulder, seemed in ecstasy. People were frightened at her palor and the convulsive movements of her eyes, but were reassured by hearing her, as if intoxicated with joy, murmur, "Keep on! Quicker! quicker still!" Soon she spoke no more.

WALTZING WITH A DEAD WOMAN.—Prince W— was known at London as at Paris as the first waltzer in the world. He waltzed for an hour with no extra beating of the heart; he waltzed every lady, he exhausted every orchestra, of much beauty wished to waltz with him, and asked him to engage her. She was the daughter of a distinguished nobleman, who had played an important part in East Indian affairs. The prince waltzed with her; soon the other waltzers stopped, the prince and Arabella alone continued. It seemed as if he were inspired while waltzing; he kept on dancing without cessation of speed, and the orchestra tried in vain to follow him. The young girl, her head upon his shoulder, seemed in ecstasy. People were frightened at her palor and the convulsive movements of her eyes, but were reassured by hearing her, as if intoxicated with joy, murmur, "Keep on! Quicker! quicker still!" Soon she spoke no more.

PROSPECTUS

Useful, Interesting, and Instructive!

The first number of the "LITERARY JOURNAL" will be issued the 1st of March, 1858, and each succeeding number will be issued the first of each month, up to December, 1859. It will be published by JAMES MCNAHEY, at $2 per number, or $15 yearly in advance. Each number will contain seventy-two pages, handsomely and neatly printed on beautiful white paper, making at the end of the year a neat volume of 648 pages. The range of topics will embrace essays, upon various subjects, from Domestic, Political, Social, Ecclesiastical, Biographical, Historical, and General Intelligence, facts, items of news, interesting stories, thrilling incidents, &c., will be noticed. Selections from the most popular Foreign and American periodicals, will be made available by transcribing to its pages such topics as will be calculated under it worthy an attentive perusal.

Now, we wish to have young men. Do you wish to have a good education, instructed, please, and turn to us for a choice supply of intelligence? If you do, just subscribe for, and read the "JOURNAL," and your desire will be accomplished.

No subscriber will ever regard the price paid for such invaluable information, in a volume of 648 pages, after having tested its value.

Recollect that every subscriber will be entitled to, and the recipient of, a gift, any one of the following books that he may select:
